As Another Sign Us.—The wedding of two people who are congenial in every respect, who are eminently suited to each other, and who can safely look forward to a long life of unalloyed joy and happiness is always an occasion of much gratification to their friends. Therefore, in the marriage of Mr. John William Honaker, of this town, and Miss Mary Nesbitt Duty, of Mt. Sterling, the joy of their friends is great.

The wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's brother Bruce P. Duty, in Mt. Sterling, at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 14th, 1903. Rev. H. C. Turner, of the Methodist Church, officiated. The wedding was charming in its simplicity. Mr. Bruce P. Duty preceded the bride couple into the parlor, where the immediate families of the contracting parties were arranged in a semi-circle. Just inside the door they halted, and Rev. H. C. Turner, of the Mt. Sterling M. E. Church, stepped forward and with the beautiful Methodist ceremony the two were pronounced husband and wife. The parlor was handsomely decorated in honor of the occasion. Immediately after the ceremony the bride party, on their way to the church, were met at the home of the groom's mother in this town, where an elegant luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Honaker will reside at the old home.

The bride is the only daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Duty, of Mt. Sterling, the former a native of Bath county, who was for many years one of the best known ministers in this section, residing at Sharpburg, Bethel and Mayville. She is finely educated, and of an exceptionally charming disposition. Her friends are numbered by the thousand and she is warmly welcomed to this town. Mrs. Honaker is related to several of the most prominent families in the county and she will be a valuable addition to the Oglesville society.

Mr. Honaker has since Feb. 4th, 1892, been editor of The Owingsville Outlook. He is a son of Mrs. Margaret Honaker, of this town, his father being the late C. W. Honaker. The writer has been intimately associated with him in business for over ten years and in all that time he has ever shown himself indulgent and considerate. Highly educated and sociable in the extreme, it is a great pleasure to be with him.

Their many friends extend to Mr. and Mrs. Honaker their sincerest best wishes and hope that their joys may ever be undimmed by any cloud.

Those present at the wedding from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Duty, of Covington; Miss Lucy Honaker and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Rose, of this town.

NEW CORN.—New corn sold last week by the wagon-load at $3.50 per barrel. Other sales of 25 bbls. at $2.50 bbls. at $2.50 and 50 bbls. at $3.00 were reported. So the market price has a wide range.

A. O. U. W. LODGE AT SALT LICK.—The following members of the two Owingsville lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen went out to Salt Lick Wednesday night and assisted in the organization of a lodge of the order containing fourteen members: E. Minihan, A. T. Byron, S. D. Thompson, Jos. D. Sheehan, J. L. Hess, N. B. Patterson, C. W. Tipton, Ed Palmer, Arthur Power, J. E. Sheehan. The lodge is Salt Lick Lodge, No. 161, A. O. U. W. Grand Master Thos. D. Osborne, of Louisville, took the lead, assisted by State Organizer W. E. Glickerson, of Winchester.

FINE DENTAL OFFICE.—Dr. Geo. W. Conner is building an addition to his dental office to make room for his new outfit of dental instruments and appliances. He has the latest electrical machines. All are brand-new and were shipped to him direct from the factory in New York City. In thoroughness of equipment Dr. Conner's office is not surpassed this side of Lexington, and is highly creditable to a town of this size. Dr. Conner has been practicing dentistry in this town for sixteen years, and literally his praise is in the mouth of every one for whom he has done dental work. "Bridge work is a specialty," he has done this sort of work for years and has had many of his patients who have had their applications with the duty of State they filed them for the county clerk and for reason failed to get their names on the bill.

BLANKS FOR SALE.—For blank oil leases, deeds, mortgages, notes, proofs of account, verifications of demand, warrants, summons ordinary, sheriff's sales, affidavits for attachment, notices to take depositions, indictments for selling on Sunday, indictments for gaming, apprenticeship boards, subpoenas, bench warrants, capias pro fine, come to The Outlook office; we have them in stock.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—It would be a great accommodation to us if all correspondents who can do so would send their items in so they would reach this office on Monday. In this way the questions can be properly decided between Monday and Tuesday and the forms can be prepared for going to press before night Tuesday. Otherwise the printers have to work after night and they don't like it a little bit, after working hard during the day also.

OUR NEW PRINTING.—With a new press and up-to-date type of the most tasteful design The Outlook is now turning out the best job work that can be printed from types. Come and see our samples and you will be convinced that you can get your work done as nicely as we do.

YOUNG STEPHENS.—Mr. John D. Young, Jr., youngest son of Judge John D. Young, and Miss Florence Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jo A. Stephens, of Mt. Sterling, were married Monday evening, Oct. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Young have the Outlook's best wishes.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED.—The Outlook would like to have a correspondent in each of the following neighborhoods: Sherburne, Flat Creek, Wyoming and Farmers. We want writers who will send real news and not mere neighborhood gossip which is not of interest to most of our readers. Some correspondents are too uncertain in regard to sending in items, so we shall drop them unless they do better.

Sharpe.—"Dr. Bones rides around in an automobile. Guess he wishes to create an impression." Wheaton.—"Him! Guess he wishes to create patients. He's a surgeon, you know."

THE REAL THING.—Virginia Rose, among Josephine, our colored maid from the South, is the proud possessor of a rhinestone belt buckle which her mistress brought her home from Paris not long since. Teddy asked her the other day: "Are they real diamonds, 'Ginny'?" "No, indeed," she replied with a toss of her woolly pompadour. "They're real rhinestones. Missy fetched 'em to me from Paradise!"—Lippincott Magazine.

A fool is generally a person who detects your faults while you are in the act of calling attention to his own.

The grievance of not a few women against their husbands is that the latter give them no ground for grievances.

Only a smart man can conceal from a woman the fact that he isn't as smart as he would wish her to think he is.

If we could draw checks as easily as we draw unkind inferences automobiles would be as common as sparrows.—Success.

WHEELER'S STROKE.—"Slurring remarks had been made by an editor about a mayor in a southern town," said Gen. Joseph Wheeler, in speaking of people who knew how to get out of embarrassing positions. "The mayor was a big, stalwart man, the editor slender, undersized and timid. 'If it was not for the dignity of my position I'd wipe you off the face of the earth,' declared the mayor. 'Get out of town, for I'll certainly do so when I finish my term.'"

"The editor did not leave town, but went to work. He abused the mayor more soundly, engaged in polemic result produced—performing the work heretofore done by the blacksmith—doing it quicker, cheaper and better."

The great utility of this machine consists in the saving of time, labor and expense; we set forth the following advantages over the old way of setting tires:

1. No fuel is required.
2. No tires are taken off.
3. No bolts are taken out and thrown away.
4. Any degree of dish can be put in the wheel.
5. Four tires can be set in one half hour's time.
6. No burning or marring of fellos.
7. No spilling of wheels by welding the tires too short.
8. It does far better work than can be done by taking the tire off.
9. No boring of the fellow for new bolt holes.

Estill & Honaker have one of these tire setters. Get them to set your tires with it.

Do you know where eight watches out of every ten are ruined? It is by some so-called repairer. You drop your watch and break it—if it is properly repaired it's as good as ever; but I am sorry to say that it's very easy to leave it with a repairer who will do it more injury than the fall, when you get it back. They either don't know how to not prepared for it.
